

BAYHEAD.

(Special to The Eagle.)

Bayhead, July 10—Although the races this week-end of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association were not sailed over the Bayhead course, they were near enough to make them of a local nature, the Mantoloking Yacht Club being the host today for the visiting crews from all sections of the bay. The Mantoloking course is only a mile or two from here, and many Bayhead boats were entered in the day's events.

Social affairs interspersed the sporting events at the yacht club and elsewhere in the resort, and the inauguration this week on Tuesday of the afternoon tea and card parties opened another popular avenue of social diversion for the women to the resort. The parties will take place every Tuesday afternoon hereafter at the yacht club, and will prove the most popular events held here. Prominent among the patronesses of the series are: Mrs. N. B. Chapin, Mrs. Louis O. Brewster, Mrs. Henry P. Bristol, Mrs. Albert Gerhard, Mrs. O. L. Kiser, Mrs. Dugwald White, Mrs. David Townley and others.
