

Island Heights Regatta Is Lure to Yachtsmen

Seaside Park, Bayhead, Mantoloking, Lavalette and Other Resorts Are Among Entrants

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

ISLAND HEIGHTS, July 17.—Island Heights to-day entertained visiting yachtsmen who participated in the week-end regatta of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association. The yacht clubs of Seaside Park, Bayhead, Mantoloking, Lavalette and other resorts were represented. Visitors were received by the Island Heights Club after the afternoon races had been sailed. Events for women took place this morning and the afternoon was given over to men's events. To-night the day's events were celebrated with a ball at the yacht club.

Many children participated this week in the special races sailed here. The youngsters now have their own day of races and enjoy their turn at being idols. The weekly tea and bridge at the yacht club was largely attended by folk from the hotel and cottage section. This is one of the most popular weekly affairs, and many society folk attend.
