SEASIDE PARK—With a light southeast wind and calm waters, the eighth weekly race of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing association saw 126 yachts in 11 classes sail yesterday over the Barnegat bay course off the Seaside Park Yacht club.

Mac Crabbe, Toms River, sailed Bat to an eight-minute victory over Harry Newman, Lakewood, representing the Lavallette Yacht club, in Mary Ann, to capture the Sewell cup.

Henry Chance, Philadelphia, won the Wolstenholme cup for class E sloops when he piloted Hironelle home first among seven other sloops. He crossed the finish line 51 seconds ahead of Runyon Colie, Zanoni, Va. Both skippers represented the Mantoloking Yacht club.

James P. Humphreys, Kent, Conn., skippered Step-in-Fetchit to victory in the 17-foot catboat event to win the Chance cup with Raymond L. Drew, commodore of the Lavallette Yacht club, second in Shawmut. He was more than two minutes behind.

Newarker Wins in Stars

Cliff Grover, Newark, easily captured the star event and won the Bamberger trophy with Frank T. Lloyd, jr., also of Seaside Park, in Vixen, second.

In the moth class, Edwin M. Lewis, Mantoloking Yacht club, continued his victory streak winning by eight minutes over William Clausen, a clubmate. Harry Hooper, Trenton, scored the only double victory of the season to date as he captured both the comet and snipe events held in the morning and afternoon.

Ross Dimm, South Orange, representing the Mantoloking Yacht club, piloted Hawk to a win in the B sneakbox event while Edwin F. Dodge, Short Hills, representing the Bay Head Yacht club, captured the A class in Mouette.
