

Sellix Wins Dilworth Senior Comet Trophy

OCEAN GATE—Eric Sellix, Bay Head Yacht Club, won the Dilworth Memorial Trophy at the seventh championship regatta of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association yesterday.

The Ocean Gate Yacht Club hosted the regatta, sailed in light air under clear skies.

Sellix sailed the Ventre A to victory in the Senior Comet race. Fred Slack and David Rodgers, both Island Heights, were second and third.

Spy Wins

The A Cat Spy of Seaside Park with Bob Sayia at the helm edged the Lotus of Lavallette, Russ Lord, skipper, by 30 seconds to win the start from Anchor Race to Forked River for the Beck Crabbe Memorial Trophy. Neil Prothers, Seaside Park, was third.

Sam Merrick of Bay Head, sailing the E Sloop Windsform, took an early lead in a fleet of 14 and crossed the finish line a half mile ahead of Cliff Campbell, Mantoloking. John Sangmeister, Beachwood, was third.

Beachwood Dominates

Beachwood club skippers predominated in the M Sloop race and took the first three places. Lavallette sailors were 1-2-3 in the Senior Penguin race.

The A Lightning race was cancelled for lack of entries. The class is racing this weekend at Bay Head for the Atlantic Coast Championship.
