

Campbell Captures Gobbler Bowl

BEACHWOOD — Cliff Campbell of the host Toms River Penguin Fleet won the second annual Gobbler Bowl regatta Saturday, topping a 32-boat fleet with 144.1 points.

The five race series was sailed over two mile courses off Beachwood Yacht Club. The winds were southerly at 15-20 knots.

Campbell won the first three races and finished fifth in the final two. His son, Billy, crewed.

Phil Marriner, Centerport, N.Y., one of eight Long Island entrants, finished second with 137.8 points. Marriner had a 5-5-4-1-3 series.

Howard Wright, Toms River fleet, was third with 128.3 on a 3-3-3-6-12 series.

Farley Fourth

Denis Farley, Lake Hopatcong Yacht Club, was fourth, 115.3 (2-8-6-14-10) and Dick Curry, N.Y., fifth, 115.1 (10-7-3-9-11).

Others in the top 10 were: 6. Ron Leuvelink, Potomac River Sailing Assn., Washington, D.C., 113; 7. Bill Hornidge, Toms River, 111.3; 8. Skip Shaw, Babylon, N.Y., 111; Bill Harjes, Toms River, 105 and 10. Runyon Colie Jr., Mantoloking Yacht Club, 98. Colie had the other first place finish.

Four races were sailed over triangular courses and one on a windward-leeward course.

The turnout was the second largest on the fall Penguin regatta circuit. Only the Touchdown Bowl on Princeton's Lake Carnegie exceeded it in size.

It was Campbell's third victory on the circuit. He also won the Touchdown Bowl and the Cooper River regatta and was second in two Maryland regattas last weekend.

Prizes were awarded at Beachwood Y.C. following the races.

day's fall Pram series at Toms River Yacht Club.

The six-week series concluded yesterday.

Jack Pierce had a first, second and third. Bill Hornidge scored a second, third and a fifth.

A fleet of 13 Prams sailed three races in gusty winds over two mile courses off the yacht club.

Fred Scammell leads the series. Campbell is second, Hornidge third and Pierce fourth.

An annual awards dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m., Sunday at Toms River Y.C.
