

138 Compete For BBYRA

OCEAN GATE — Fair skies and a strong southwesterly wind prevailed yesterday as the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association held the seventh championship regatta of the season at Ocean Gate Yacht Club.

Registration was 138 boats. Many of the Flying Dutchman and E Sloop sailors were participating in other regattas.

The A Cat, Spy, piloted by Bob Sayia of the Seaside Park Club, won the special start from anchor race to Forked River for the Beck Crabbe Memorial Trophy.

The prize was donated in 1941 by friends of Mr. Crabbe who was a well-known A Cat and deep sea windjammer sailor.

John Harkrader, Bay Head Yacht Club, outsailed a field of eight Senior Comets for the Dilworth trophy, donated to honor a past commodore of the Ocean Gate Club who served many years on the BBYRA Regatta Committee.

The eighth BBYRA regatta is scheduled Aug. 22 at Shore Acres Yacht Club.

Next weekend Barnegat Bay sailors will participate in the annual two-day invitation regatta at Little Egg Harbor Yacht Club.

SUMMARY