

BBYRA Regatta

BRICK TOWNSHIP — Runyon Colie Jr., Mantoloking Yacht Club, won two E Sloop races yesterday to highlight Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association's eighth championship regatta at Shore Acres Yacht Club.

Colie, the class leader with six wins in eight races, also won the Alznauer Trophy.

A 177-boat fleet sailed in 16 classes. Winds were northeasterly at 18-20 with gusts up to 25 for the morning races.

The breezes slackened to 10-12 knots in the afternoon. Several Penguins and M sloops capsized in the morning.

Donna Tucker, Lavallette won the Jet race and captured the Tomlinson Trophy for juniors. Runner-up Rich Wiedmann, Manasquan River, took the Virkler Trophy. Both trophies were presented in this race since senior and junior Jet sailors raced together.

Maintaining class leads with victories yesterday were Lavallette's Gary Watson in A Sneak-boxes and Dan Jost in B Sneak-boxes.

Don Sayia's Spy, Seaside Park, won the A Catboat race to stay ahead of his other three competitors.

Other class leaders victorious yesterday were Jim Hahn, Bay Head, in Finns and Billy Campbell, Beachwood, in Intermediate Penguins.

Russ Crane, Metedeconk River, won his second M Sloop race to feature the morning program. Runner-up was class leader Bonnie Wiencke, Beachwood, in a 32-boat fleet—largest class of the day.

Susan Fellows, Toms River, won her second junior Penguin race. Lavallette's Bob Lubenow was runner-up in a fleet of 26.

Roger Brown, Metedeconk River, paced the senior Penguins. Class leader Howard Wright, Toms River, was second.

Jim Montague, Toms River, won the Barnegat 17 race.

Ernie Dean, Toms River, topped class leader Jim Carson, Metedeconk River, in a 22-boat Lightning Fleet.

Regattas at Lavallette next Saturday and Seaside Park Sept. 3 close BBYRA's 53rd annual campaign.
