Mantoloking's Colie Has Winning Weekend

Runyon Colie had a big weekend in Penguin sailboat racing.

The Mantoloking Yacht Club skipper clinched the Gobbler Bowl event by winning two of three races and placing second in another at Beachwood Yacht Club, and held first place after two weeks of competition in the Bay Head Yacht Club Frostbite Series.

Colie won the first two races at Beachwood Saturday with Cliff Campbell placing second in the second race and winning the final one to take second in the standings. Bill Campbell was third in the standings.

At Bay Head, Colie won the first, second and fourth races and was second in the third and fifth. Dick Curry, second in the standings, was first in the third race and third in the fourth and fifth. The series ends next week.

Yesterday's races were sailing in five to 10-knot easterly winds.
