

BOATING

Lavallette Skippers Win 3 Races

LAVALLETTE — Host Lavallette Yacht Club sailors won three titles yesterday in the ninth championship regatta of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association.

A 130-boat fleet raced in nine morning classes and 97 went out in seven afternoon classes.

Winds were light southerly in the morning but rose to 20 knots in the afternoon.

Donna Tucker in Jets, Bob Lubenow in Intermediate Penguins, and Dennis Tully in Junior Comets won for the hosts.

Metedeconk River also had a "triple" with Rober Brown in Senior Penguins; John Scott in Lightnings and Ed Hoffman in Blue Jays.

Henry Bossett, Manasquan River, won the A Sneakbox race for the Law Memorial Trophy. Keith Wilson, Seaside Park, took the B Sneakbox race for the Leadbitter Trophy.

Miss Tucker won the Eli La

Vallette Trophy and Tully took the George Hoffman Trophy.

Bossett was runner-up to Bay Head's John Wardell in the 36-boat afternoon M Sloop fleet. Meg Hornidge, Beachwood, topped the 56-boat morning M Sloop fleet. Had Brick, Island Heights, was second.

Runyon Colie Jr., Mantoloking, was an easy winner of the 20-boat E Sloop race. Cliff Campbell, Toms River, was second and Bay Head's Sam Merrick third.

Joe Elylingham, Toms River, won in Junior Penguins. Clubmate Ernie Dean scored in Barnegat 17's.

Peter Kellogg's Lotus, Bay Head, survived a protest to take A Cat honors. Warren Law's Mary Ann was second.