

Brick, M

BEACHWOOD — Had Brick of the Island Heights Yacht Club won the Laser title and Bob Martus of Port Washington, N.Y., Y.C., took Penguins as the Beachwood Y.C., held its annual Gobbler Bowl regatta Saturday in light east-southeast winds on the Toms River.

A fleet of 10 Lasers and 15 Penguins competed in a four-race, one-throwout series. It was the first year they ran Lasers.

Brick nipped the Kempton brothers for Laser honors with a 1-1-3. Shawn Kempton of the Ocean Gate Y.C. was 2-2-1 to tie with his brother Terry of the Toms River Y.C., (2-1-2) for second place in the regatta.

Martus, the ex-N.Y. Maritime College senior, now out of Port Washington, won the Penguin title with a 2-1-1.

Peter Sayia of Seaside Park Y.C., was second with 1-2-2 and Kevin Kempton of the Toms River Y.C. was third with 3-2-3.