RUSH TO ENTER IN THE INQUIRER'S RACES

The Inquirer's Cup Races for Saturday, August 21, over the Cedar Creek course of the Island Heights Yacht Club, have created an immense amount of interest, and it is expected that the regatta will be the largest event in the annals of yachting on the North Jersey coast; already the boys are inquiring as to conditions, classes, etc., and the entry list will be the largest ever. Two cups are offered in each class.

The following clubs will enter boats in all classes:

- Island Heights Yacht Club.
- Seaside Park Yacht Club.
- Corinthian Yacht and Gun Club.
- Bay Head Yacht Club.
- Mantaloking Yacht Club.
- Cedar Creek Yacht Club.
- Toms River Yacht Club.
- Barnezat City Yacht Club.
- Lavolette Yacht Club.

The class for speed boats should fill rapidly, and as there are several new boats on the bay this year and no races have been arranged for them this will be a great chance for them.

A meeting will be held at The Inquirer office on Monday at 11 o'clock, and it is hoped that all the clubs will be represented so that the final details may be arranged, committees appointed and work begun in earnest to make The Inquirer Races an event long to be remembered and an annual fixture.
